Practice Overview

Adriana joined Chambers in 2023 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Nathan Jones (Family) and Rebecca Harrington (Family, Ancillary Relief and COP).

Adriana undertook her LLB and BPTC at Cardiff University and is a member of Middle Temple.

Adriana has a background in Family law, Finance and COP after working at Atkinsons Solicitors, obtaining a Distinction in her Master's Degree with a dissertation on Matrimonial Finance, and working as an Independent Advocate for those under DoLS.

Since starting second six, Adriana has built up a busy practice, predominantly in Family Law. She does, however, accept instructions across all areas and represents a spectrum of clients.

Adriana is a personable and empathetic advocate whilst remaining robust in her advice. She has been described as taking a forensic approach during cross examination and consistently provides a high standard of written and oral submissions.

Adriana also founded the group Raise The Bar, which has hosted successful events, both remote and in person, for those wishing to become barristers.

Adriana is a member of Advocate, an organisation which provides Pro Bono representation at Court.

Out of Court, Adriana enjoys rowing and travelling.
