Practice Overview

Eugene specialises in criminal work. He prosecutes and defends serious criminal cases in the Crown Court. He moved to Cardiff from chambers in London in 1994 and since then has built up and maintained a busy and thriving practice. He has a wide range of expertise in all aspects of criminal work and has a particular interest in drugs case and cases involving sexual allegations.

Eugene is often instructed because of an intelligent and analytical approach to his cases and his ability to take sensible tactical decisions which ensure that his client's case is advanced in the best possible way. His ability to communicate in a friendly and informative way with his professional and lay clients is a feature which often leads solicitors to instruct him.

Eugene was appointed as a Recorder in 2019 and sits in Civil and Crime on the Midlands Circuit. He is qualified to try cases which involve allegations of rape and serious sexual offences.

In 2021 he was appointed to sit in the Mental Health Review Tribunal for Wales.
