Paul Hewitt

Called: 2010

Practice Overview

Paul is a very experienced and busy criminal law specialist barrister based in Cardiff and South Wales. Paul has conducted numerous trials and hearings in Crown Courts in all fields of criminal law from murder to minor cases. If you need representation or simple advice you will find Paul to be passionate, sincere, and highly professional.

Paul Hewitt qualified as a solicitor in 1997 before being called to the Bar in 2010. H

Paul was born and brought up in Melbourne, Australia, before moving to South Wales. He studied the University of London LL.B law degree through Swansea Law School and then undertook the Legal Practice Course at Cardiff University.

After qualifying, Paul worked with well-known South Wales firms such as John Collins and Partners and Ivor Evans and Benjamin, undertaking a mixture of civil cases including personal injury, general civil cases, commercial and property litigation.

Paul has a keen interest in sport, particularly those Aussie favourites: rugby, cricket and surfing. He is a member of Lisvane Cricket Club, Cardiff and is a qualified cricket umpire and member of the ECB ACO panel of cricket officials.
