Practice Overview

Rose joined Chambers in 2023 following successful completion of her common law pupillage under the tutelage of Catrin John, Christian Howells and Peter Donnison. Prior to joining, she obtained a First Class degree in Politics and Sociology from the University of Bristol and was awarded a major scholarship from The Honourable Society of Gray's Inn to qualify at the Bar. Prior to pupillage, Rose worked for a tech company in Paris, France.

Civil and public: Rose accepts instructions up to the fast track on allocation through to trial and is frequently instructed in PI, contract, and banking and finance matters. She has conducted advisory and review work as a junior in high-value probate and PI claims. Rose is also a member of the Attorney General's Civil Panel: Junior Junior Counsel in respect of judicial review. She acts for both trusts and the bereaved in inquests and is currently being led by David Hughes in an Article 2 matter. As a pupil, Rose worked extensively on both the Infected Blood and COVID-19 inquiries.

Crime: Rose has a busy criminal practice and appears in the Crown and Magistrates courts prosecuting and defending from first hearing through to trial. The plethora of offences that Rose works with include drug production and supply through to violent and sexual assaults. Rose is a CPS Level 2 Prosecutor.

Family: Rose represents parents from first hearing through to fact-finds and final hearings in children law. She has acted in complicated matters involving internal relocation, DOLS, and ISWs and has successfully obtained Non-Molestation, Occupation, and Prohibited Steps orders for clients. Rose often handles cases involving serious domestic violence.
