

Megan Hartson

Call: 2001

✉ clerks@30parkplace.co.uk ☎ +44 (0)2920 398421

Megan Hartson practises in all areas of criminal law, with a balanced practice across prosecution and defence.

She is a level 3 CPS advocate and a member of the Rape and Serious Sexual Offences (RASSO) panel, reflecting her experience in handling sensitive and complex allegations.

Megan is a highly skilled advocate with a commanding and engaging court presence which inspires confidence and ensures she is instructed regularly in serious criminal matters.

Her combination of providing realistic advice and total commitment to the case in hand ensures that clients receive clear advice and thorough representation throughout proceedings. Her sound judgement and meticulous eye for detail ensures Megan is trusted by both the CPS and defence solicitors to manage challenging cases and vulnerable witnesses with professionalism and care.

Megan is very personable and develops a good rapport with clients and professionals alike.

Expertise

Crime

Megan has a busy Crown Court practice covering the full range of criminal offences. As a level 3 prosecutor and RASSO panel member, she is frequently instructed in serious and sensitive cases. Her mixed practice across prosecution and defence gives her a balanced perspective and a pragmatic, client-focused approach.

Appointments

- CPS Level 3 Prosecutor
- Rape & Serious Sexual Offences (RASSO) Panel

Education

- BVC
- LLM Commercial Law
- LLB (Hons)

Memberships

- Criminal Bar Association
- Lincoln's Inn
- Wales and Chester Circuit